PROMPT ATTENTION GIVEN TO COLLECTION

BRECKENRIDGE is to be congratulated: Miss Pollard is to write a book.
President Cleveland values the Bland bill. He will hasten the free-coinage of silver. The line between the east on the one side and the west and south on the other will be more distinctly drawn. A veto of the bill will unify the opposing factions and strengthen the cause of the millions who labor for a livelihood.
JAMES KEILLY, G. W. Bryan and A.
Wentworth, representing themselves to be a board of supervisors, are circulating a lot of trash through their Wilcox organ, which, by being copied into other papers of the territory, may injure the standing of Cochise county financially. For the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the affairs of the county as they stand, the PRO-SPECTOR will state that there is but one board of supervisors in the county as recognized by the court, and that is the board of which W. K. Perkins is chairman and Nat Hawke clerk. Any other persons claiming to be clerks or supervisors, while they have the right to do so, should not be permitted to detract from the county's credit by published statements of such a silly nature as from time to time appear in print. The ruling of the courts shall and must be held sacred. When they decide to recognize any other county government beside that which was duly elected and installed fifteen months ago, then the PROSPECTOR will be quick to recognize the flat of such court, as will all law abiding citizens in Cochise county.

KNOWLEDGE Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principle embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.
Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation.
It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.
Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

PROPOSALS FOR FRESH BEEF AND MUTTON—Headquarters Department of Colorado, office of the U. S., Denver, Colorado, March 5, 1894. Sealed proposals in triplicate, subject to the usual conditions, will be received at this office, or at the office of the Acting Commissaries of Subsistence at the following posts viz—Fort Apache, Bowie, Grant, Huachuca, San Carlos and Whipple Barracks Arizona Territory; Bayard, Marcy, Stanley and Wingate, New Mexico; Logan Colorado; and Douglas and DuChesne, Utah Territory until 12 m. April 3, 1894 and then opened, for furnishing the fresh beef and mutton, from the block, that may be required at these posts by the Subsistence Department U. S.
Army during the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1894. Separate bids are also invited for furnishing for the same period choice cuts of fresh beef for officers use. Preference will be given to articles of domestic production, condition of quality and price (including in the price of foreign production the duty thereon) being equal. Contracts made under this advertisement shall not be construed to involve the United States in any obligation or payment in excess of the appropriation granted by Congress for the purpose. The government reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Circulars of instructions to bidders will be furnished on application to the Acting Commissaries of above named posts or to EDWARD E. DRAYO, Captain and C. S. U. S. Army, Chief Commissary of Subsistence

THE WORLD OF LONDON.
In 1847 all London houses were compelled for the first time to connect with sewers.
The population of London, it is reported, increases at the rate of 200 persons per day.
A room in the house of L. W. Palmer, of London, is entirely papered with about seventy thousand canceled postage stamps.
The city of London drinks every year 45,000,000 gallons of malt liquor, 8,000,000 gallons of wine and 1,500,000 gallons of spirits.
For two hundred years the paper from which Bank of England notes are made has been manufactured at Laver-stock in Hampshire.
Twelve hundred beds at a penny a night each are offered to London's homeless poor in a new Salvation Army shelter, erected on the banks of the Thames, near Blackfriars bridge.

UNDER THE WEATHER.
A Realistic Picture of Her Majesty Queen Anne.
Those outside of a palace may feel Shakespeare's sentiment: "There's such divinity doth hedge a king," but it is hardly possible to those inside.
One of the Scotch commissioners to negotiate a union between Scotland and England, Sir John Clerk, could not have felt it during an official interview with Queen Anne, of whom he gives this realistic picture:
"Her majesty was laboring under a fit of the gout, and in extreme pain and agony, and on this occasion everything about her was much in the same disorder as about the meanest of her subjects. Her face, which was red and spotted, was rendered something frightful by her negligent dress, and the foot affected was tied up with a pulpit and some nasty bandages.
"I was much affected at this sight, and the more when she had occasion to mention her people of Scotland, which she did frequently to the duke.
What are you, poor mean-like mortal, thought I, who talks in the style of a sovereign!"
"Nature seems to be inverted when a poor, infirm woman becomes one of the rulers of the world; but, as Tacitus observes, it is not the first time that women have governed in Britain, and indeed they have sometimes done this to better purpose than the men."
—Youth's Companion.

A SMALL FAVOR.
Pat's Funny Request Put a Stop to the Duel.
Although it is a familiar saying that an Irishman is always spilling for a fight, still there is one kind of fighting to which even the brave sons of Erin are sometimes averse. This is dueling.
A story well illustrating this fact has recently come to us.
A certain Irishman, having been challenged to fight a duel, accepted the conditions after much persuasion on the part of his friends, who felt confident of his success. His antagonist, a lame man, walked on crutches.
When the place for the shooting had been reached the lame man's seconds asked that he be allowed to lean against a milestone which happened to stand there. The privilege was allowed, and the lame man took his stand.
The Irishman and his seconds drew off to the distance agreed upon, one hundred feet. Here Pat's courage suddenly failed him and he shouted to the lame man:
"I've a small favor to ask of ye, son."
"What is it?" asked the cripple.
Pat answered: "I could ye that ye might lean agin the milepost, and now I would like the privilege of leanin' agin the next one."
The laugh that followed spoiled everybody's desire for a fight, and the whole party went home without a shot having been fired. —Youth's Companion.

WORN BY THE RICH.
TRAVELING wraps of gloria with hoods are among the private orders for the season.
DANCING-DRESSES of very thin material are made with three skirts over a plain silk foundation.
FLAT folds of material headed by milliner's pipings are among the prettiest of skirt trimmings.
The close cottage bonnet is prominent in the millinery exhibits for the season. It is universally becoming, easily managed and liked by everybody.
A TAILOR-MADE costume has a wide collar, which is open on the shoulders.
The front portion of it is very wide, extending well over the sleeves in front and crossing in double-breasted effect. The edge is trimmed with pasementerie drops.

MEN IN POLITICS.
SENATOR WHITE, of California, is in favor of electing United States senators by popular vote.
MAJ. J. F. MELINE, the new assistant treasurer, is a cousin, two or three degrees removed, of the French statesman of that name.
GEORGE HEYWOOD was elected town clerk of Concord, Mass., at the last election for the forty-first time. The records of the Heywood family for more than a century

NEWS BY WIRE.
The house, by a strict party vote created English democratic movement from the third California district.
An order staying the execution of assassin Prendergast till April 6th, was made by Judge Cullen last night.
Miss Pollard's friends deny that she will kill Breckenridge if she loses her suit for breach of promise, but in any event, they say, she will write a book.
The senate committee on public lands will probably soon take up Geary's bill granting the arid land states and territories a million acres each.
Bank cashier Herrick of the San Francisco Savings Union was shot and killed yesterday by a man who presented a check for payment that was not good. The dastard was captured.
One of the bits of gossip in circulation is that members of congress have conferred about the propriety of a resolution for the expulsion of Mr.
Breckenridge after the trial is over.

It is asserted in the treasury department that the president has so far made up his mind on the Bland silver bill that he is disposed to sign it if he can convince himself that no business disturbance will result.
The meeting to be held on the steps of the capital by citizens, Coxey and the army of the commonwealth Tuesday, May 1st, has been prohibited by Chief of Police Moore under the authority of an act of congress.

A Washington special says: The president will veto the Bland bill. He reached this conclusion last night. He has prepared the draft of the veto message and will submit it to the cabinet tomorrow. This information is given on the authority of one of the closest financial associates of the president.

informs us that their prices will be lower for 1894 than ever. He wishes us to ask our readers not to purchase anything in the line of carriages, wagons, bicycles or harness until they have sent 4 cents in stamps to pay postage on their 112 page catalogue. We advise the readers of this paper to remember his suggestion.
